Iranian- Saudi Relations 1941 – 1979

"A historical Political Study"

By : Dr. Mohammed A . Younis Edan

Abstract

The paper spots light on studying the relations between Iran and Saudi Arabia between 1941 -1979 and the most important regional and international developments which had left its impacts upon such relations.

These relation were characterized by stability and improvement all over the period of the study. It can be described since 1927 till 1953 as a stage of fixing and establishing these relations, as well as looking for means and methods of developing them As for the relations during the period 1953– 1964, we can say that it had witnessed `longstanding ways while the period between 1964 -1979, it was a flourishing period. Due to the huge compatibility between both states in the political, economic and security aspects which had been reflected upon the politics of both state, we can could see its roots clearly.
