Abstract

Iraq lives in a serious and sensitive regional environment during history and represented in the external forces' desires influence extension inside Iraq the external influence increase after the occupation,.. An international.. The search division occurred in the context this perspective took the first axis to two basic axis: the relation between the homeland... The citizenship... The nationalism.... The citizen.. The second axis: boundaries. We cannot get out of these challenges, we are experiencing only through full citizenship rights and duties in seeking to develop national scene and fortify the national unity and safeguarding of all the risks and challenges, have been discharged research with a set of recommendations, which is almost among many of the recommendations made in several studies, the most important exit of occupiers from the country. 2 - to be (citizenship) a source of the rights of duties members of the Iraqi society without discrimination. 3- that the State shall promote opportunities for economic and social growth, scientific and cultural fields to Iraqis.
